PEOPLE ARE SO Peopley

Tales of Togetherring

People are so Peopley

Welcome to a September of music, connection and stories brought to you by the humans of Fabric. This week features stories of realization that what wasn't worth the trouble suddenly was, 100%. Thanks for being here to enjoy and share thunderous applause as Lauren Herbert and Eloise Carlson kick off our September of stories!

WELCOME!

Life, for adults and kids alike, is most fulfilling when it is woven deeply with others and that mysterious element we often call the third strand, or "God."

Fabric & the Twin Cities Marathon - October 2

We'll be at 34th Ave S & Minnehaha Pkwy 9-11:30! One of the wonders of Fabric is that there isn't anything we have to do, except be relevant. After fighting road closures and everyone's involvement with the marathon some years ago we realized it makes sense to just be part of it. Cheer for your friends and neighbors with us! What's Happening for Kids

Families sit near one of the white tables so kids can create their own storytelling tools to help keep the stories going beyond Sunday mornings!

Come early each week! Kids join us at the Gaga pit or at the playground beginning at 10:10! Coffee and treats on the lawn nearby!

Stories tether us to what matters most: our families, our friends, our hearts, our planet, the wondrous mystery of life itself. Yet the stories we've been telling ourselves as a civilization are killing us...

Reading #2: Sacred Stories

There is a LOVE that knows all about our peopleness and says "YES!"

Reading #3: Why Stories?

Homework: What is a moment from your life you would name as sacred? It might be quite ordinary. There may be many. Take 10 minutes this week to pause and recreate the scene in your imagination in detail - sights, sounds, smells. Share it by writing it down or telling someone about it.
