SANTAFLIX: The Santa Clause - This 1994 Christmas classic with Tim Allen isn't only funny and heartwarming, it carries more of what Christmas is meant to bring than Santa could ever fit down a chimney. Watch the movie ahead of time if you wish, and if you don't get around to it, don't worry, we'll make sure you are all caught up. And we'll try not to spoil it for you if you haven't seen it yet. But seriously?!? You haven't seen The Santa Clause yet? Well, what better to do over Thanksgiving weekend!

Where we are and the story of our land matters. Most of us live in, and we gather in land that was part of the Dakota people for centuries, but from which they were forcibly and dishonorably removed by the US government. It is an honor and a responsibility for us to live on and care for this land today.

The "Santa Clause" = If you put on the suit, you become it.

The ultimate message of Christmas is God's message, "You matter to me!"

*People who have walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness
on them light has shined.*

*For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9.2,6*

"Remember, I am with you always." Matthew 28.20

HOMEWORK - Starting this week, start matching up WHAT really matters, better yet, WHO really matters with what your life is about during these busy weeks. You know that the hustle and bustle can pull you away from what you really love as easily as it can draw you to it. And don't do it alone. Use your people. And don't be surprised if it is hard or people don't trust your gestures, remember Scott Calvin!

ROAM (Read, Observe, Apply, Meditate) through these readings this week.
Isaiah 9.1-7 and Matthew 1.18-25
